

Jupiter Island, Florida

33 South Beach Road, Jupiter Island

Truly an exceptional Jupiter Island property. 300 +/- feet of pristine oceanfront coupled with nearly 400 +/- feet of depth make this a significant oceanfront property. Built in 1942, the five bedroom residence has the spirit and feel of the "South Pacific"; timeless and romantic. Lovingly maintained, the property will allow retreat to the gentle privacy of days long ago or a host of new opportunities.

A mix of serene and formal spaces, the nostalgic main house sits high on a dune overlooking the vast Atlantic horizon. The 300 +/- feet of direct oceanfront provides a mesmerizing canvas upon which to look out all day long. The living room faces the beach while the loggia offers the peace and tranquil beauty of the gardens. The dining room and Florida room are separated only by pocketing sliding glass doors allowing for enlarged formal entertainments. Large plank cypress panels cover most of the interior walls channeling the Florida of long ago. Outside are patio areas on both the ocean and interior sides. A large swimming pool sits amidst the lush tropical landscaping that enfolds the property in such a loving embrace. On the west boundary sits a two car garage with a beautifully appointed efficiency apartment above.

With 300 +/- feet of frontage and at 2.72 +/- acres, this is a singular and highly exceptional Jupiter Island oceanfront estate. This property has been given preliminary approval to be subdivided into two lots.
