OCEANFRONT GRANDEUR

Chateau de la Lune spans nearly 190 feet along the pristine beach of Jupiter Island, Florida. Spectacular moonscapes inspired the name of this magnificent estate presenting 11,801 square feet of sumptuous interiors that command more than one and a half oceanfront acres.

PRIMARY SPACES

Formal living and entertaining areas have been custom designed to offer endless views of the surrounding grounds and Atlantic Ocean. Lavish appointments include imported chandeliers, marble fireplaces, gourmet kitchen, wet bar, wine cellar, high-impact windows, and a state-of-the-art sound system. Exquisite marble tiles are set diagonally to create a seamless flow throughout the home, and handcrafted, arched doors feature imported French hardware. The first floor offers a large family room with box-beamed ceiling and panoramic views of the ocean. Serving the spacious formal dining room, a gourmet kitchen blends function with beauty with a large center island, granite surfaces, and custom solid walnut cabinetry. Downstairs lies a 2,600-bottle climate-controlled wine cellar and a dumb waiter providing easy access to the upstairs butler's pantry.

PRIVATE QUARTERS

A marble staircase in the main house ascends to the second level where the formal living room awaits. The spacious master suite boasts a wall of windows overlooking the ocean. Gleaming Rojo Alicante marble accents the spa-like master bathroom's luxurious Jacuzzi tub, and two walk-in closets ensure plentiful wardrobe space. A separate guesthouse with five bedrooms and bathrooms echoes the style and beauty of the main home.

SUPERIOR DESIGN

Sturdily built for South Florida beachfront living, the home is constructed of concrete block with a foundation of solid concrete pilings and a 6-inch-deep concrete roof featuring Spanish clay barrel tiles. Interiors are richly appointed with stone columns and gold leaf-accented groin vault ceilings. A unique bar room showcases a cherrywood-beamed ceiling, granite countertops, and a hand-carved bar depicting wine making.
